46th Year ◆ No. 33 Serving the West Sacramento Region Since 1964 Wednesday, March 24, 2010

The ABI Aggregate warehouse at 1201 South River Road was "fully engulfed" in flames when firefighters arrived at about 5:30 a.m. on Friday.

"In addition to flames, there were explosions from acetylene, propane and diesel tanks at the site," reported City of West Sacramento spokesperson Art Schroeder in a press statement.

Firefighters used a "defensive mode of attack" to control the fire, he said.

The two-story, 15,000-square foot building was totally destroyed. The loss was estimated at $500,000.

Nine fire engines and two trucks responded – and support came from fire agencies in Sacramento and Davis to help bring the fire under control by 7 a.m.

No injuries were reported.

The West Sacramento Fire Department is investigating the cause of the fire.

Two seriously hurt in motorcycle accident

Two motorists were taken to the UC Davis Medical Center last Wednesday with "traumatic injuries," following an I-80 crash near Enterprise Boulevard. The accident involved a motorcycle.

The accident occurred on eastbound I-80, reports the West Sacramento Fire Department. Several local firefighting units responded, and found the two victims in the roadway.

One of the victims was transported to UCDMC by ambulance, and the other was flown by helicopter.

ID still a mystery

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

The identity of a man found dead in the Sacramento River last Wednesday is still a mystery.

Robert LaBrash, Chief Deputy Coroner for Yolo County, told the News-Ledger yesterday that the cause of death has been determined to be "drowning," and the man appeared to be in his 30s or 40s.

"He had probably been dead for at least a month," said LaBrash.

Lieutenant Tod Sockman of the West Sacramento Police Department said in a press release that the man's body was found at about 3:15 p.m. by some Yolo County probation officers.

The officers were walking along the river, south of the deep water channel and across from Miller Park, "looking for one of their probationers who might have been in the area," said Sockman, when "they observed what they believed to be a body floating in the river."

"The body was caught on tree branches in the water about 25 feet from the shore across from Miller Park," said the West Sacramento Fire Department. Police and fire units – including a boat – spent about two hours on the scene recovering the body.

The coroner's office is still trying to identify the man, said LaBrash.

Pet food 'pantry'

Need some help keeping Fido in kibbles?

The Yolo County animal services department has introduced "Mouse's Food Pantry," intended provide pet food and supplies to pet owners in need.

The pet food pantry is named after "Miss Mouse," a feral gray cat abandoned at the shelter. "Miss Mouse" was put to work as a "mouser" in the shelter barn, but impressed the staff by "challenging a leashed dog during temperament testing," said the animal services division.

The cat now helps staff test the temperament of dogs being considered for adoption placement.

Pet owners who need help from the pantry will find it on a first-come, first-served basis. They need to bring proof of residency in the county. If the pets are not altered and vaccinated (dogs should have licenses) the shelter can help. Pet owners are asked to limit their food and supply requests to once a month.

Donations of dry or canned cat or dog food, cat litter, rabbit food, treats, toys and supplies are welcomed at the "pantry." The donations will help support the program.

"Mouse's Food Pantry" is located at Yolo County Animal Services, 2640 E. Gibson Road in Woodland. Hours are Wednesday and Friday, 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and Saturday from 2:30-3:30 p.m. For information on available food and supplies, call (530) 668-5287 extension "0."

The shelter's website is www.yolocountysheriff.com. For information on found strays and pets available for adoption, visit www.petharbor.com or www.petfinder.com.

Port partners with solar power company to save money & go 'green'

(Courtesy of Pacific Power Management, LLC)

The Port of West Sacramento and its an Auburn energy company announced this month that the company had installed over 3,500 solar panels on the rooftops of two port warehouse buildings.

The panels can generate up to 637 kilowatts, said Pacific Power Management, which owns the panels, said that's enough to provide electricity for 89 homes for a year, and will reduce the port's "carbon footprint" by 34 million pounds of carbon dioxide emissions over the next 25 years.

The company installed the system "at no cost" to the port, it said. Buying electricity back from the company will save the port "more than $20,000 annually" in energy costs.

The panels are on the rooftops of two rice warehouses that front the deep water channel, west of Jefferson Boulevard.

"All our systems are lowering energy costs for our customers," said Kelly McMahon, vice president of business development for Pacific Power Management, in a press release. "Every PPM power purchase agreement to date is proof that our customers can have the economic and environmental benefits of green energy without the capital investment."

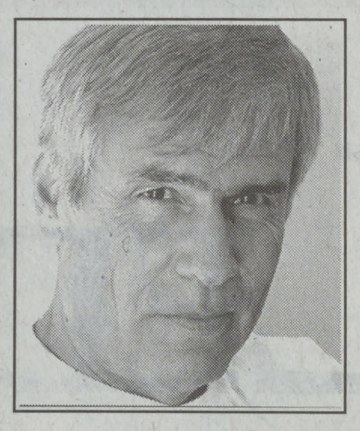
'This new solar installation clearly demonstrates that we're serious about becoming one of the greenest ports in the country.'

MIKE LUKEN
Manager of the Port

"In addition to all the other steps we're taking to improve our environmental performance, this new solar installation clearly demonstrates that we're serious about becoming one of the greenest ports in the country," the press release quoted Mike Luken, manager of the port.

'Davy Crockett, king of the wild frontier!'

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

Last week, I wrote about how much of my youth was spent desperately wanting to be a real live cowboy, and how that when I was growing up in West Sacramento, I never missed watching great old TV shows like Gunsmoke and The Lone Ranger and The Cisco Kid. Plus on Saturday mornings you could always find me glued to my parents' living room television set taking in every minute I could of those old action-packed black and white western movies which starred famous cowboys like Roy Rogers and Gene Autry and Hopalong Cassidy. Plus I loved the really pretty horses they all rode and I longed for the day when I would be old enough and big enough to jump up on a marvelous steed like that and gallop off into the sunset. Best of all, I figured that when I was finally old enough to run off and be a cowboy, I would also be able to have my own personal side-kick, and I was sure that he would be just as loyal and funny as the great side-kicks of that era, wonderful old actors like Gabby Hayes, Smiley Burnette, Andy Devine and Fuzzy Knight.

Anyway, just when I thought I had all my youthful cowboys and Indians memories out of my mind last week, I happened to turn on one of those network news programs the other night and the anchorman suddenly announced, "Fess Parker died early today at the age of 85. He was best known for his TV portrayal of the famous frontiersman Davy Crockett in a series of Walt Disney television shows which were so popular back in the mid-1950s that millions of young children wanted their parents to buy them coonskin caps, buckskin outfits, moccasins, "Old Betsy" rifles, and Davy Crockett lunch pails."

"Oh, no," I cried out as my youngest son passed me on his way from his bedroom to the kitchen, "Davy Crockett just died!"

My son stopped, looked at me like I was acting even more crazy than usual, and then reminded me that according to all the history books he had read, Davy Crockett died somewhere back in the early 1800s.

"No, no, no — not that Davy Crockett!" I said.

"But I think there was only one Davy Crockett, Dad," my son gently tried to remind me.

"I'm talking about Fess Parker!"

"Who?"

"He was Davy Crockett back when I was a kid! He was a famous TV star!"

"There was once a famous TV star named Fess?" my son asked with disbelief.

"You've never heard of Fess Parker?"

"Never?"

"How about his sidekick, Buddy Ebsen?"

"Nope, never heard of him, either."

"How about their theme song, `The Ballad of Davy Crockett?"

"They had a theme song?"

"It went like this," I said, beginning to sing a tune and lyrics that were somehow burned into what is left of my memory banks. "Born on a mountain top in Tennessee, killed him a b'ar when he was only three, Davy, Davy Crocket, the kind of the wild frontier."

"Look, Dad," said my son, desperately waving his arms back and forth in an effort to keep me from singing anymore, "the only Davy Crockett I've ever heard of was the one who died in the Battle of the Alamo a couple of centuries ago. But I'll take your word for it that there was another one who had a really stupid name like Fess."

And with that, my son disappeared into the kitchen and I was left to ponder about what had become of Fess Parker once the Davy Crockett phenomenon had died out more than a half-century ago. Well, according to one of the obituaries I read about him, it turns out that he also played Daniel Boone on another popular television program for five or six years and then he basically retired from being a television star, saying, "Who needs a guy running around in a coonskin cap?" Instead, he turned his attention to real estate development down in Santa Barbara and also ended up producing some of that region's finest wines on more than 700 acres he called Fess Parker's Winery & Vineyard. And it also turns out that he was an even nicer guy in real life than he was on the television screen, with apparently no one having an unkind word to say about him.

'The only Davy Crockett I've ever heard of was the one who died in the Battle of the Alamo a couple of centuries ago -- but I'll take your word for it that there was another one who had a really stupid name like Fess.'

When I mentioned to a friend earlier today that I was strangely saddened by the passing of Fess Parker and that I also wish my kids could have grown up watching television shows like "Davy Crocket, King of the Wild Frontier" instead of "South Park" and "The Simpsons", what I guess I was really saying is that when I was young and growing up in West Sacramento, a kid could pretty easily figure out who the good guys were, and more importantly, who the bad guys were. Right and wrong somehow weren't so hard to discern back then, and although with age I've come to understand that the world isn't so black and white, and that much of life has to be seen in shades of gray, I still miss the innocence and simplicity of those long ago days, when my twin sister and all her friends were always telling my mother that I was grossing them out because my hair smelled so bad from wearing my Davy Crockett coonskin cap morning, noon and night!

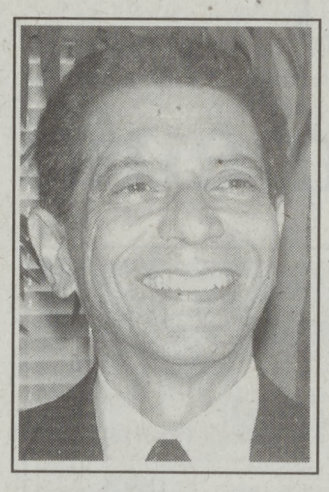
SPORTS INSIDER



By Richard Novoa

The NCAA Men's basketball tournament was full of upsets and surprises as the road to the Final Four is now down to the Sweet Sixteen. The biggest upset was No. 1 seed Kansas getting knockoff by lowly Northern Iowa 69-67. Another shocking result was tenth seeded St. Mary's rolling over Villanova 75-68 and Pac-10 representative Washington outscoring New Mexico 82-64.

Michigan State is the sole survivor from last year's Final Four teams as they tapped danced their way into Midwest Regional semifinals against the Cinderella team from Northern Iowa. The other three finalist North Carolina and Connecticut didn't make the tournament field this year and second seeded Villanova tripped on the way to the Big Dance over the Gaels of St. Mary's.

In the rest of the brackets, Ohio State will face Tennessee to decide which team will move on to the Final Four from the Midwest while in the East, West Virginia plays Washington and Kentucky will play Cornell. In the South Regional Saint Mary's will dance with Baylor and Duke squares off with Purdue. The West bracket has the tournament favorite Syracuse playing Butler and Kansas State has Xavier standing in their way to the Final Four.

OK, I'll take a wild guess at which teams will be headed to the Final Four National Championships on April 5th in Indianapolis. I couldn't do any worst than President Obama predictions. The Commander and Chief had Kansas winning the tournament.

In the Midwest, I have to go with the final four experienced Michigan State Spartans who were beaten last year in the title game by North Carolina and in the South I like Duke's chances with their experienced coach and a weaker field of challengers.

Syracuse should win the West easily and Kentucky has the tools to win the whole enchilada. The Cinderella team is Tennessee and if they can get by Ohio State and Michigan State in a very tough bracket, the Orange Volunteers can be the team that wears the glass slipper to the Big Dance.

The NCAA Women's tournament is in full throttle with the Regional games set for Saturday, March 27th and Monday, March 29th at the Arco Arena. Saturday's games will feature Georgia against Stanford and Gonzaga will play the winner of the Tuesday game between Vanderbilt and Xavier. The Regional Championship on Monday will feature the semifinal winners. Tickets are available at the Arco Arena Box Office.

Kings Korner

The Kings (24-47) were starting to play some good basketball until they were blown out 102-85 on Monday night by Memphis. The Kings actually won a game in Los Angeles on Sunday afternoon and looked full of energy and displayed some exciting basketball. Ok, it was the Clippers but it still was fun to watch the Kings run them off the court.

I guess the tired legs got the best of them on Monday with the Grizzlies turning a close game into a rout with a 20-5 run late in the game. To make matters even worst rookie of the year candidate Tyreke Evans was literally knockout the Kings losing effort on Sunday night against Milwaukee. Evans was hammered going to the basket by the Bucks defenders and sustained a concussion, lacerated gums and a chipped tooth and a possible fractured jaw with the Kings leading the game 91-89 with only 24 seconds left in the game.

The Kings ended up losing 114-108 in double overtime and but the good news was Evans x-rays on the broken jaw came back negative. The Kings will evaluate Evans injuries and is currently listed day-to-day for the next games. It's probably not the best way for the Kings to prepare for their five game road trip back East. The Kings have 11 games remaining in the 2009/10 season with only five games at home.

The Kings will visit New Jersey on Wednesday (4:30 –CSN-CA) followed by trip to Boston on Friday (4:30-CSN-CA) and a quick stop at King James house in Cleveland on Sunday (noon-CSN-CA).

The road trip gets worst with back-to-back games starting on Tuesday (4:30–CSN-CA) in Indiana and in Minnesota on Wednesday (5:00 p.m.-CSN-CA). The Kings return to the Arco on Saturday, April 3rd to host the Portland Blazers.

Enjoy your day - see ya next week.

Raider tennis stays on top

From River City High School

A stirring come-from-behind win by the River City High School Tennis Team has the undefeated Raiders alone in first place in the Capital Valley Conference. Trailing 3 matches to 1 against visiting West Campus, RC took four of the last five to squeak out a 5 to 4 victory.

It was rough early for the hosts, as only the top girls doubles team of Sarah Aguilar and Tuyet Hoang came out on top, winning 10-4. The Warriors took wins from both boys singles matches and in #2 girls doubles. Jim Saetern and Vongsri Vang won their #1 boys doubles contest 10-5 to pull RC closer. Then, a near miraculous comeback by the mixed doubles pair of Trevor Langford and Christine Maltez evened the day's score at three matches apiece. The duo trailed 6 points to 1 in their tiebreak before winning an amazing seven consecutive points to win the mixed 10-9(6).

Ranika Prasad put up a strong second set before falling at the top girls singles position, 2-6,5-7 to give the lead back to the Warriors, 4 to 3. In #2 boys doubles,

Semi-pro soccer team comes to West Sacramento

Promoter Richard Novoa (pictured at far left) announced last week that he had brought the 'Sacramento Gold,' part of the National Premier Soccer League, to West Sacramento.

The team plays its first home game at 5 p.m. on April 11 at River City High School.

The league is considered to be the "fourth tier" of competition, behind Major League Soccer, the USL First Division and USL Second Division, said a Sacramento Gold Futbol Club press release.

Players maintain amateur status and college eligibility, with teams showing "a mix of young and veteran players," said the team.

River City's Phi Dinh and Rudy Maltez pulled away from a 5-all tie, reeling off five straight games to post a 10-5 win that evened the overall match at 4 to 4. So it all came down to the end of a lengthy #2 girls singles match with a large crowd looking on and Raider Monica Anaya prevailed 2-6,6-3,6-3.

"Just another epic high school tennis match won by the kids from West Sac.!" proclaimed Raider Coach Dave Brooks. His team is now at 5 wins and 0 losses in the CVC, just ahead of West Campus and Rio Linda who each have one defeat. Those two teams play one another this week and RC travels to Rio Linda on Thursday, March 25th. On Monday the 29th, Amador of the Mother Lode League visits River City for a 3:30pm match.

The Raiders are 7 and 0 overall thus far in the 2010 campaign.

Yolo landfill: 'putting our trash to good use'

From the County of Yolo

> Not only does the landfill keep its fees low for consumers, it is also extremely 'green.'

Yolo County has much to be proud of – including its use of trash. The Yolo County Department of Planning & Public Works, Integrated Waste Management Division is committed to reducing the county's ecological footprint, and through operation of the county's landfill, they have been extremely successful.

Through a variety of contracts, nearly all Yolo County-produced garbage ultimately ends up in the Yolo County Central Landfill, with recyclables going to various facilities throughout the region for processing. Green waste is also collected from all jurisdictions, except the City of Davis, and processed to create energy or used in land applications. During Household Hazardous Waste events, residents can bring in toxic items such as paint, mercury and florescent tubes and properly dispose of them at no charge. Ultimately, Yolo County takes almost anything residents want to dispose of from tires to concrete to mixed paper, charging for only those items that are not covered by grant funding or rebates through the recycling market.

So, beyond these broad range of services provided to Yolo County residents, why is the landfill so great? Not only does the landfill keep its fees low for consumers, it is also extremely "green." One example of this is the landfill's phytoremediation program which uses the kenaf plant to treat and discharge the water which results from various landfill processes. Phytoremediation is the treatment of environmental problems through the use of plants which mitigate the environmental problem without the need to excavate the contaminant material and dispose of it elsewhere. In the past, landfill water was disposed of off site. The state no longer allows for that practice, so instead of investing ratepayer dollars into an expensive treatment plant, as many landfills do, Yolo County instead grows kenaf which removes harmful pollutants, boron and selenium, from the groundwater. Further, the landfill uses the resulting plant material to cover garbage instead of solely relying on soil or plastic.

Another example of Yolo County's "green" landfill is the conversion of waste to electricity. As waste decomposes in the landfill, a by-product, called methane gas, is produced. The gas is captured and sent to the onsite Methane Gas Recovery Facility, a public/private partnership constructed in 1988, and ultimately used to produce electricity – enough power for nearly 3,000 homes locally.

Most importantly, the landfill has pioneered the use of bioreactor cells. All trash is held in cells, but bioreactor cells are "wet" versus the dry tombs of traditional cells. The process of decomposition in a bioreactor cell is expedited by pumping liquid into a plastic-lined cell which assures optimum moisture to encourage microbes to eat the trash. This process significantly increases the biodegradation rate of waste and thus decreases the waste stabilization and composting time (5 to 10 years) relative to what would occur within a conventional landfill (30 to 50 years or more) therefore extending the life of the landfill from the year 2045 to 2081.

"The use of bioreactor cell technology will give our community an opportunity to keep its waste local for a longer period of time," explains Yolo County Waste Reduction and Sustainability Manager Marissa Juhler. "It makes you more conscious of your waste, unlike many places where the waste is shipped far away."

Letters to the Editor

Save the Bryte branch

(Open letter to Dianne Tuosto, U.S. Postal Service Review Coordinator, West Sacramento)

I wish to thank both you and Ms. Theresa Hartenstein, Manager, Post Office Operations, Sacramento District, for ensuring that our little branch's hours of operation were at least temporarily returned to the hours stated on the entry door. Also, I have found that the clerk is now receiving supplies as they are requested, contrary to prior practice, so that I and my fellow customers may conduct our postal business in a "One Stop" manner right where we either live and or work.

Our community is hoping you will give us a fair and equitable chance to retain our postal history by instituting at least a three year trial period in which our hours are returned to their former full day status, stamp and all product quota restrictions are lifted, and this branch may be allowed to return to it's rightful place in being a vital part of a close knit, walkable community once again. We were considered to be a vibrant, vital to the postal service part of this community, until the construction of a rail road underpass apparently deemed us superfluous, and a decision, we believe, was made to reduce us into obscurity because of it. We hope you will see the unintended disconnect that we feel has been committed upon our community's historic values and traditions and move to reverse it. (Especially since the USPS has decided to close the distribution center in Olivehurst, California and have promised to offer the affected employees a chance to remain with the Postal Service in the general area, if possible).

Our neighborhood is full of older immigrants who depend greatly on our branch to conduct postal business with their relatives "in the old country". Their children, and/or grandchildren have moved away, they don't speak English very well, they're not on the internet, and, most importantly, after their experiences in the land of their birth, they're not going to invite government employees into their homes to pickup packages. They ofttimes gather in two's or three's in order to help one another communicate with the clerk, and exchange greetings and news from the home they left behind, as it has ever been a part of the culture of this community since our beginnings. This branch is an integral, vibrant part of this community's life. It has been so for far longer than most can remember, and should remain so in perpetuity. As was promised some two decades ago by the Western Regional Director who flew out from Denver to hear and address our concerns.

Donations for 'special ed'

Hello!! I'm Rebecca Kain and a proud member of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls. Currently, I hold the office of Charity and as one of my many duties, I am responsible for raising money/supplies for a cause of my choice. I took this opportunity to support a program I truly care about. I chose to support the Special Education Program at my high school, River City. The reason this cause is near and dear to my heart is because my cousin will be attending River City High School next year as a Special Ed. Student. I feel that it is important for these children to have the right supplies and tools to have a successful year. I spoke to the Special Education Program Coordinator and the following items were requested:

-- White, plain paper
-- White, lined paper
-- #2 pencils
-- Colored pencils
-- Colored markers (Crayola washable)
-- Overhead projector pens
-- Dry Erase white board pens
-- White board erasers
-- Erasers (pink ones for pencils)
-- Monetary donations will also be greatly appreciated

We will be collecting the above stated supplies at the next Stated Meeting Dinner on Thursday, April 1, 2010. Thank you for any contributions you will make!

PICKS OF THE WEEK

"Sherlock Holmes" (PG-13) — Robert Downey Jr. and Jude Law star as Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson in Guy Ritchie's rollicking reimagining of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's legendary Baker Street detective stories. While the film does stray afield from Doyle's source material, the affronts toward its literary canon are more than made up for by the electric chemistry between Downey and Law.

The mystery involves a secret society, black magic and a plot to overthrow the English government. Thankfully, Ritchie doesn't dwell too much on the "whodunnit" or "howdunnit" aspects of this convoluted scheme and instead concentrates more on the relationship between Holmes and Watson, and (because it's Guy Ritchie) lots of action scenes.

If you're a Holmes purist, then I suggest you revisit the marvelous British television series starring Jeremy Brett, because this film may make you cringe. However if you're a huge Sherlock Holmes fan who also enjoys watching alternative interpretations of the iconic character, then this film will not disappoint.

"Alice in Wonderland" (2-Disc Special Un-Anniversary Edition) (Rated G) — Coinciding with the release of Tim Burton's reimagining of Lewis Carroll's tale is the classic 1951 Disney animated film. In addition to the completely remastered film, this two-disc collection is packed with special features including: "Reflections on Alice," a documentary on the nearly 20-year journey Walt Disney went through to get Alice on the big screen; the Mickey Mouse

The Kitchen Diva BY Angela Shelf Medearis

Egg-Sicles Are Perfect for Easter

I've found the perfect recipe for creating beautiful hard-cooked eggs, and some simple ways to decorate the eggs for Easter. If you're looking for ways to use your baskets of Easter eggs after the holidays are over, my recipe for Elegant Egg-Sicles is the answer!

Using the recipes below and a variety of delicious dressings and toppings, you can transform hard-cooked eggs into beautiful Easter eggs, and after the holidays are over, create an elegant appetizer and a healthy snack. Happy Easter!

ELEGANT EGG-SICLES

- 12 hard-cooked eggs (See tips below)
- Dipping sauces: mayo, mustard, sour cream and ranch-style dressing
- Topping Coatings: paprika, cayenne pepper, bacon bits, minced green onions, parsley, pesto, etc.
- 12 small appetizer or salad forks, or Popsicle sticks

To Assemble the Egg-Sicles:

Place the small forks or Popsicle sticks into the large end of the hard-cooked eggs. Place the egg-sicles on a decorative plate. Fill small bowls or saucers with mayo, mustard, sour cream and ranch-style dressing. Place the topping coatings of paprika, cayenne pepper, chopped bacon, green onions, parsley, pesto, etc. on individual saucers. Allow your guests to coat eggs with the dressing of their choice and then roll the egg-sicles in the topping coatings. Serves 6 to 12.

Preparing Hard-Cooked Eggs:

1. Bring eggs to room temperature.
2. Place the eggs in room-temperature water in a large pot.
3. Bring to a boil then turn down to a low boil for 12 minutes.
4. Quickly chill the eggs in ice-cold water.
5. The eggs must be completely cool and dry to decorate successfully.
6. Hard-cooked eggs should be kept refrigerated and used within one week.
7. The greenish color around the yolk of hard-cooked eggs is a natural result of sulfur and iron reacting at the surface of the yolk. It may occur when eggs are cooked too long or at too high of temperature, or when there is a high amount of iron in the cooking water. Although the color may be unappealing, the eggs are still wholesome and nutritious and their flavor is unaffected. Greenish yolks can best be avoided by using the proper cooking time and temperature (avoid intense boiling) and by rapidly cooling the cooked eggs. Occasionally, scrambled eggs can develop a greenish tint if overcooked at too high a temperature or are left too long in a metal pan. Keep the egg carton to store your hard-cooked eggs!

Preparing Easter Eggs:

Note: Peeled, hard-cooked Easter eggs make delicious Egg-sicles!

1. Use crayons to gently color a design on the hard-cooked Easter eggs. If you want to dye the crayon-decorated eggs, the crayon wax will resist the dye and the design will show through.
2. You also can decorate the eggs with craft supplies, buttons, sequins, glitter, beads, pieces of felt or stickers. Use white or craft glue to attach the materials.
3. To make your own dye: Combine 1/2 to 1 tablespoon of food coloring with 2 teaspoons of white, distilled vinegar in a large cup or deep bowl. You can experiment by mixing the food coloring to create a variety of hues. Add water until the cup or bowl is half full.
4. Gently place the eggs into the dying liquid in the cup or bowl using a soup spoon to avoid cracking the shell. The longer the eggs are left in the dye, the darker the color will become.
5. When the egg is the desired color, remove it from the dye, pat it dry with a paper towel and place it back into the egg carton or on an egg-holder. Refrigerate until ready to use.

PETITION FOR WATER METERS MADE BY WATER & LIGHT CO.

The petition placed before the Railroad Commission by the Washington Water and Light Co. recites the reasons for the request in the following:

Broderick, Cal., March 2, 1920.
Railroad Commission of California,
San Francisco, Cal.
Gentlemen:

The Washington Water and Light Co. does herewith respectfully ask permission of the Railroad Commission of California, for the right to place meters, on such of its consumers who are using excessive amounts of water, for the irrigation of corn, alfalfa and other garden truck, and all other large consumers of water supplied by this company.

The principal consumers who we desire to meter are Mexicans, Italians, Portugese and other people of that order, who are great argiculturists and large users of water, who are using water at all hours of the day and night and who will not abide by the rules of this company, and as the monthly revenue is so small it is impossible to hire a watchman in addition to the engineer operating the plant.

So therefore, we are enclosing our application for permission to install meters as above stated, and trust that same is in order according to the rules of procedure of the Railroad Commission of California governing such applications.

Respectfully submitted,
Washington Water and Light Co.
By Joseph Shaw, Secretary.

In the matter of the application of the Washington Water and Light Co., a corporation, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California, for permission to install meters for the purpose of serving various consumers of said company ,who are using excessive amounts of water, from the distribution mains of said company, for irrigation purposes, and all other purposes for which excessive water is used.

Application.

The petition of the Washington Water and Light Co. respectfully shows:

(1) That, Applicant is engaged in the business of selling water for domestic purposes, in the town of Washington, Yolo Co., California.

(2) That, the postoffice address of said Applicant is Broderick, California.

(3) That, Applicant is desirous of installing meters on the premises of such of its consumers who are using excessive amounts of water, for the irrigation of vegetables ,alfalfa and other garden truck ,and all other excessive users of water that may come to its knowledge from time to time, and that the rates for water used through such meters, be at the following rates, to-wit:

A monthly minimum payment of $1.25 for ⅝ or ¾ meters; $1.50 per month for 1 inch meters; $2.50 per month for 1½ inch meters; $3.00 per month for 2 inch meters, and $3.50 per month for 3 inch meters.

Quantity Rates.

25c per 100 cubic feet for the first 400 cubic feet or less.

20c per 100 cubic feet for the next 2400 cubic feet or less.

15c per 100 cubic feet for all water user over the above.

Wherefore, Applicant asks that the Railroad Commission of California, make its order authorizing Applicant to place meters on such of its consumers as described above, and at the rates as stated.

Dated at.....California, this.....day of....., 1920.

State of California, County of.....—ss.

Joseph Shaw, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is the Secretary of said Washington Water and Light Co., a corporation, the said applicant in the above proceedings entitled as above, that he has read the foregoing application, and knows the contents thereof, and that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to matters which are herein stated on information and belief, and that as to those matters he believes to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this.....day of....., 1920.

It seems funny that the Park Board of Sacramento is compelled to seek a landscape gardener in Santa Barbara.

Wouldnt' a Sacramento citizen do to fill the job?

IMPROVEMENT CLUB WILL PROTEST WATER METERS FOR PROPERTY OWNERS

RAILROAD COMMISSION WILL BE ASKED TO REFUSE PERMIT TO CORPORATION FOR INSTALLATION

By a unanimous vote of all members present at its meeting last Tuesday evening the Washington Improvement Club decided to enter a protest with the Railroad Commission against the installation of water meters for property owners within the town.

The secretary of the club was requested to write the commission asking for information concerning the date on which a hearing will be given and the club would appoint its representatives to be present to enter objections.

The opinions expressed at the meeting last Tuesday evening in this connection were anything but complimentary to the Washington Water and Light Company.

One lady said, "The service is poor at any time with little of it and while we use very little water in the winter we believe there should be no objection for using a supply plenteously during the summer."

Another lady said, "I think the rate is high enough now—$1.25—but if we get meters we may be forced to pay three or four or five dollars a month. I object and will get my own well water first."

Another lady said, "If a meter is installed the minimum to the property owner will be $1.25 per month, and no matter whether the property is rented or vacant that amount must be paid. I object and will willingly help to pay the expenses of delegates to appear before the Railroad Commission to enter protest."

It is reported on good authority that the franchise under which the Washington Water and Light Company operates is valueless and there is even a current rumor that another corporation will be formed to supply water if the existing corporation insists on installing meters.

There is no mistake in the temper of the people of Washington on this question. They oppose it strenuously and will go to considerable expense to prevent it.

The question of building a stairway at the north side of the S. P. bridge in the vicinity of the Railroad Hospital for the convenience of the working men of the town was discussed at length and a committee of two was named to interview the division superintendent on the matter.

Ex-Supervisor Palm and P. A. Fitzgerald were named on the committee. They promised to take immediate action and submit to the railroad authorities the reasonableness of the request.

A stairway at the head of the bridge was refused when the structure was in course of construction because the railroad company objected to the men crossing the switching tracks along the river bank. At the Railroad Hospital location no such difficulty prevails.

Another question this committee was asked to take up with the railroad authorities was that of the opening of the draw a long time before steamers passed through thus occasioning great delay to pedestrians on their way across the bridge.

The question of annexation to Sacramento was not discussed by the club last Tuesday evening but was postponed till a future occasion when more time would be at the disposal of the members.

NOT SALACIOUS BUT LEANING

Five billboards fencing a vacant lot in San Francisco carry the following theatrical advertisements:

"Should a Woman Tell?"
"Why Change Your Wife?"
"She Loves and Lies."
"The Other Wife."
"A Woman of Pleasure."

Across the street is a humble sign announcing night classes in the University of California extension department.

In San Francisco any man found in the company of a woman of questionable character will be placed under arrest.

Gee! Those club women will be forced to carry bonds in their satchels all the time.

ONLY ONE PROHIBITIONIST REGISTERED IN WASHINGTON

The disgust of the general public at the imposition of prohibition may be judged from the fact that only one person in this locality had the courage to register prohibition out of a total registration of 454.

It is a pity that the opposition to this obnoxious law was not made unanimous. The proportion against it is so great that the feelings of the people may be surmised from the showing.

Out of a total registration of 454 there are 199 Democrats, 237 Republicans, 5 Socialists, 9 declined to state, and 1 Prohibitionist.

Of the total Judge Barry registered 300, Constable Buckingham 109 ,and W. E. M. Beedslee 42.

There are many who have not registered yet but they cannot vote at the May primaries. The registrars mentioned above will continue to take names and voters should take advantage in order to participate in the fall elections.

DIGITAL BOOKS

"This new product offers a wide range of materials for all ages, available with just a library card and Internet access," said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chairwoman Helen M. Thomson in a County press release. "Our new download service expands the library's ability to reach more people. Customers can download movies, books, music and more from the comfort of their homes."

The Digital Bookmobile, owned and operated by OverDrive, Inc., is housed inside an 18-wheel tractor-trailer. This 74-foot, community outreach vehicle is a high-tech update of the traditional bookmobile that has served communities for decades. The vehicle is equipped with broadband Internet-connected computers, high definition monitors, premium sound systems, and a variety of portable media players, all of which help visitors explore Yolo County Library's download service. Interactive learning stations give visitors an opportunity to search the library's digital media collection, use supported mobile devices and sample eBooks, audiobooks, music and video.

Beginning on March, 26, public library patrons can take advantage of the download service any time by visiting the library's Web site (www.yolocountylibrary.org). From there, they can browse the growing collection of best-selling, newly released and classic titles, and check out a digital title with a valid library card. Once downloaded, digital titles can be enjoyed on a computer or transferred to supported mobile devices. Many audio titles can also be burned to audio compact disk. At the end of the lending period, titles will automatically expire and are returned to the digital collection, so there are no late fees or damaged items.

Contact any of your branch libraries for more information about this new service offered by your library. Branches are located in Clarksburg, Davis, Esparto, Knights Landing, West Sacramento, Winters and Yolo. For more information on Yolo County branch libraries, visit: www.yolocountylibrary.org.
